

THE OATH OF AUROCHS

I carry with kindness. I stand with might.
I remain when the road becomes a fight.
My strength is not measured by power alone,
But by what I support and the care I have shown.

I keep to my word. I finish my part.
Dependable in action, devoted at heart.
When others need strength, I will answer their call,
Steady their footing and help them stand tall.

I will not disappear when the burden grows great.
I remain at my post, whatever the weight.
For trust must be earned through the things that we do,
And reliability proven by seeing things through.

With kindness, I give. With strength, I endure.
With dedication, I remain steady and sure.
Whatever we carry, whatever we face,
I stand with my people and hold firm my place.

I AM THE AUROCH OF LEVIDIER
