

LEVIDIER

THE OATH OF FOREST WOLVES

I seek what is true and learn what I lack.
I sharpen my skill and strengthen the pack.
I question, I study, I master, I grow,
For wisdom gives purpose to all that I know.

I search beyond what is easy to see,
For answers are earned through curiosity.
I honour my word and master my craft,
Turning knowledge to strength and forging a path.

I share what I learn and teach what I can,
For wisdom grows stronger when passed hand to hand.
Through darkness and distance, through fortune and fall,
My loyalty stands when it matters most of all.

With knowledge, I learn. With skill, I provide.
With wisdom, I grow. With loyalty, I abide.
I seek. I discover. I strengthen my pack,
And leave trails of wisdom to those at my back.

I AM THE FOREST WOLF OF LEVIDIER
